

Worksheet 4: Map of Angelus

Student name: _____

Teacher: _____ Class: _____

Refer to the Map of Angelus to complete the missing descriptions. Respond to the questions below.

1	Why is it important that Angelus be in a fairly isolated location some distance from the city?
2	What is the significance of the geography of Angelus, e.g. where Lockie lives as opposed to where Vicki lives?
3	What does the geography reflect about the economic status (or success) of various males in the novel, e.g. Barry Streeton and the Sarge?

Worksheet 4: Map of Angelus (Page 2)

4	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In what ways does the setting echo and/or reinforce the psychological states of the characters? • For instance, how is the surf important in the story and what link is there between The Swamp and Joy's mental state?
5	In Tim Winton's original novel, Lockie Leonard, Human Torpedo, Angelus is described as being 'small and crummy-looking'. This doesn't really seem to suit the Angelus portrayed in the series. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How is the town represented in the series? • In which ways is this similar to and different from, the novel? • What are the advantages and disadvantages of the changes in the series?
6	At a micro-level, how does the description of Lockie's house in the novel compare with the screen version? Compare and contrast these versions.	