

Question Sheet 6: Adaptation

Student name: _____

Teacher: _____ Class: _____

As you watch some of the episodes from the Lockie Leonard TV series, you will notice the voiceovers by Lockie (or, at least, an actor in the role of Lockie). Before progressing, read some extracts from the original trilogy of novels by Tim Winton (for example, the opening chapter).

- Lockie Leonard novels by Tim Winton
  - Lockie Leonard, Human Torpedo, 1990, McPhee Gribble paperback edition
  - Lockie Leonard, Scumbuster, 1993, Piper paperback edition
  - Lockie Leonard, Legend, 1997, Pan paperback edition

Respond to the questions individually or in small group discussion

1	What do you notice is different between the original novels and the series? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Which one is told in third person and which in first person?</li></ul>
2	How does this change the way we view events?
3	At the end of each episode in the series, Lockie tells the viewer what he has learnt. Are there other things the viewer might have learnt from the episodes?
