Choose one of the following activities to complete:

- Design your own book cover (front and back) for one of the Lockie Leonard novels
  - Remember that the design should incorporate
    - Text, layout spacing, background objects, mid-ground objects and foreground focus
    - Colours that are reflective of the themes from the series and the main character
    - Ideas to attract the targeted audience (make sure it is appealing to 11-14 year olds)
    - Skills in the use of technologies (you can use a software illustrator program or develop the design by hand)
    - Detail, which is important to overall finish and presentation of the design
- Design a poster to advertise the Lockie Leonard TV series
  - Remember that the design should incorporate
    - A layout that presents immediate information about the series to the audience
    - A balance between text (size, shape and font) and image
    - Colours and shapes that are reflective of the themes from the series and the main character
    - Ideas to attract the targeted audience (make sure it is appealing to 11-14 year olds)
    - Skills in the use of technologies (you can use a software illustrator program or develop the design by hand)
    - Detail, which is important to overall finish and presentation of the design
- Design a life-size cardboard cut-out of Lockie to stand in the library, directing students to the Lockie Leonard books.
  - Remember that the design should incorporate
    - A realistic or cartoon interpretation of what Lockie would look like
    - 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional components, for example, clothes to dress up the cut-out, a wig, sunglasses, etc.
    - A mechanism that allows it to stand by itself, therefore free standing or attached to a wall or shelving.
    - Sound: think about what a directional character would say and how it would sound.
